INDEPENDENT LIVING & ASSISTED LIVING

TOP 8 REASONS YOU SHOULD MOVE DURING THE PANDEMIC

Keeping your home clean and sanitized is an overwhelming chore.

Our staff follows enhanced disinfecting measures throughout our community. You will enjoy weekly housekeeping and linen service in your apartment at no extra cost. All common areas of Garden Court Retirement Community are sanitized routinely according to CDC guidelines.

You are dependent on family and friends for transportation.

We provide scheduled transportation for our residents. Shopping, running errands, picking up medications, and group outings become a breeze. During the Covid-19 Pandemic, our staff is coordinating shopping for our residents so they don't have to worry about exposure in public places.

Navigating virtual and online tools are overwhelming.

Our trained staff can guide you every step of the way. We will ensure that you are able to have quality online visits with family and friends. We can also help you navigate tools of the online world to provide you with endless entertainment.

It's difficult to find fitness classes that fit your needs.

Our certified fitness trainer will tailor a program to fit your needs right here at Garden Court Retirement Community. We offer fitness classes with appropriate social distancing and private training to all of our residents.

Cooking for one is too much trouble and variety in your diet has become bland.

We provide restaurant style dining. During the Covid-19 Pandemic, we will deliver all of your meals right to your apartment. Our Chef has prepared an ever-changing menu so that you have a variety of delicious choices every day.

Sometimes you forget to take medications.

Our team can provide help with your medications and a variety of other services tailored to your needs.

It is difficult to get to your doctor appointments.

We provide scheduled transportation to and from doctor appointments. We can also help you utilize "Telehealth" and remote medicine right from the comfort of your own apartment.

Being confined to your home has you feeling isolated and alone.

At Garden Court Retirement Community we have become pros at making social distancing fun. With an entire team working to keep our residents safe, happy and engaged, you won't feel alone and can start living life again.

You're not alone. We are here every step of the way. Call 425-438-9080 for more information.
